++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry today, rain spreading north overnight.

Today:
A mostly dry start with sunny spells, but breezier and cloudier by afternoon with a few showers, mainly in the west. Generally dry with some good sunny spells again later in the day. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry through the evening with some clear spells. However, thicker cloud will bring outbreaks of rain from the south after midnight, the rain heavy in places by morning. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Friday:
Outbreaks of locally heavy rain to start, but brightening up in the morning to give a mixture of sunny spells and showers. The showers heavy and perhaps thundery in places. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Saturday and Sunday rather cool and unsettled with some showers and perhaps the odd spell of more persistent rain. Bright or sunny intervals and a few showers on Monday.
